NEW HOME FOR ALDGATE GALLERY!

After 22 years in the business, proprietors Anne Hider and Barbara Marvell have decided to retire.

They have sold their business to Barbara and Duncan Wass at the Hartley Valley Teahouse, who are honoured to be given the task of carrying on the fine tradition of excellence in Australian Fine Arts by professional artists.

There has been frantic hammering and painting in the house behind the Teahouse, and the gallery is now open.

The Teapottery display is now incorporated in the gallery, and the complete range of some seventy fabulous, and fully functional teapots are now on view, and available for sale.

The Gallery hours will be the same as the Teahouse - 10 to 5 daily, except Monday. Just follow the new gravel path.

SPIRIT OF HARTLEY AWARDS -

Thinking caps on, please, for that special person/persons who represent "The Spirit of Hartley". Nominations to Carol, for discussion with a committee. Telephone 63552088. Just a thought, "The Big Backyard" event may be a good venue for the presentation. Ideas welcomed.
